A scroll is mounted on a cave wall, held by four wooden pegs. The scroll is unrolled and contains text.

I was leading many people to freedom so sometimes I would have to do everything I could to get them all out safely.

A woman in a purple and white dress and bonnet stands in a cave, shouting to a crowd of people. She has her hands to her face in a shouting gesture. A starburst speech bubble contains her words.

LET'S GO EVERYONE, WE HAVE TO KEEP MOVING!!

Since I did lead very many people
,let's say some weren't very grateful for it.

Ugh, can't you move it lady!? Walk faster.

And some were very nice and honored to be escaping.

Oh are you ok?!
Thank you so much,
this is such a great remembered moment!

Thank you young lady! Your welcome, it's the best I can do!

Yes, I am very grateful for having those people throughout my life. Tell me about yours?

Thank you Peter we really appreciated it.

Since I was apart of the resistance I had to do some stuff to stop the Germans as much as I could. I had to be very brave.

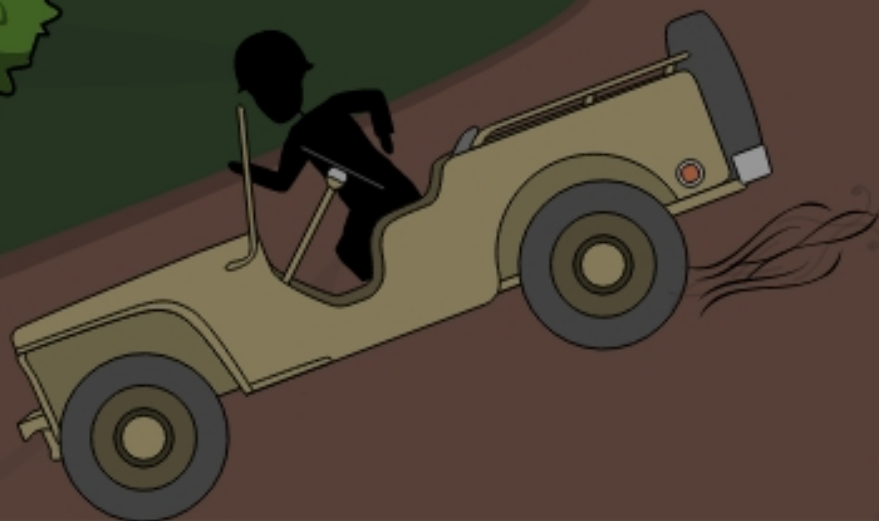

Why are you so against the Germans shall I ask?

Well..

Well first, the Germans
ran over my fiances,
Lise, without hesitation

They started war and not only that since my country didnt have any defense the Germans took that as advantage and took the Jewish people from my country

Wow that seems harsh. I'm sorry for your lost.
